Education services

Improve your skills or learn new ones in a supportive environment.

Why should I attend?

We offer sessions which are aimed at improving your skills or learning new ones in a safe, supportive and caring environment. These are based around the curriculum areas followed in Adult Education – English, maths, IT, employability and personal and social development.

You can gain recognised vocationally related qualifications in these areas.

Activities you can be involved with

We offer activities in a number of different areas, for example:

- Improve your reading skills in a safe space
- Improving your English and maths functional skills
- Developing hand writing
- Improving computer skills
- Identifying your personal learning goals
- Developing your employability skills – getting ready to work, writing a CV, identifying strengths etc
- Problem-solving skills

We also offer a library service where you can take out DVDs and books both at The Recovery College and the Kenneth Day Unit.

When do sessions run?

Sessions run Monday to Thursday and are organised with your specific teachers depending on whether they are one to one sessions or groups. The libraries run on Monday afternoons.
